

CASE STUDY

One membership, five kinds of protected content

How dePepi sells courses, a newsletter,
Notion templates, books, and services
from a single site.

THE CREATOR

A blog that grew up.

Pepi Valderrama turned a personal blog about life in Japan into a creative life and career coaching business with courses, coaching, and digital products.

THE CONTENT

Newsletter.
Courses.
Templates.
Books. Services.

Free and paid newsletter posts, 8+ online courses, Notion templates, books, and hands-on services all live behind one membership system.

THE STRUCTURE

Free, Annual, and Founding.

Three levels decide who sees what. Free members get the newsletter and starter templates; paid tiers unlock premium templates and full course access.

THE WIN

Everything, with one click.

Members get access to all of it from a single account, and Pepi runs the whole catalog without stitching tools together.

IN HER WORDS

“I wanted to have my own subscription system and use something that would be easy to set up, easy to maintain, and easy to grow.”

Pepi Valderrama
